

“The Cross –Centered Life”

Good Friday Communion Service

April 2, 2010 at 6:30pm

The service tonight is an opportunity to remember the extent of our Savior’s sacrifice on the cross, on our behalf. This service has been put together to help you reflect and respond to the power of the cross in your life. We pray that this service will help you respond with thanksgiving to God for His indescribable gift.

Celebrating the Lord’s Supper Together

You are invited to stay in the sanctuary as long as you want to pray and reflect on what God had said to you tonight. Because of this invitation, when you leave the sanctuary, please leave with a discipline of silence so that you do not disturb those who are staying behind.

Colossians 2:13-15 NIV

¹³When you were dead in your sins and in the uncircumcision of your sinful nature, God made you alive with Christ. He forgave us all our sins, ¹⁴having canceled the written code, with its regulations, that was against us and that stood opposed to us; he took it away, nailing it to the cross. ¹⁵And having disarmed the powers and authorities, he made a public spectacle of them, triumphing over them by the cross.

Hebrews 4:14-16 NIV

Jesus the Great High Priest

¹⁴Therefore, since we have a great high priest who has gone through the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold firmly to the faith we profess. ¹⁵For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who has been tempted in every way, just as we are—yet was without sin. ¹⁶Let us then approach the throne of grace with confidence, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help us in our time of need.

You are invited to attend our Easter Services on
